

Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions are typically offered to Crisis staff on permanent contracts, and are set out here for your information only. Terms and conditions may vary according to circumstances and this summary does not form part of any subsequent employment contract.

Pension

Crisis will contribute a sum equivalent to 5% of your salary into our group personal pension scheme with Scottish Equitable. You will be entitled to join this after three months service with contributions backdated to your start date.

Hours

Full time is 35 hours per week. Employees usually have some flexibility around start and finish time around a core time of 10h00 – 16h00. This depends on operational needs of the department in which employees are working.

Probationary Period

Six months, during which time the contract may be terminated with 1 week's notice.

Notice

Following the successful completion of the probationary period, the notice period for this post is 1 month/2 months/3 months (dependent on level).

Holidays

25 annual leave days, plus 8 public holidays per annum. Part-time employees are entitled to 25 days pro rata which is based on 2.08 days per month. The holiday year runs from 1 July – 30 June.

Sick pay

In the first six months of service employees are entitled to three working days sick leave. This rises to a maximum of 43 working days after six months.

Season Ticket Loan

A loan to purchase an annual season ticket for travel to and from work may be obtained with agreement of your line manager.

Maternity Leave and Adoption Leave

To be revised (April 07)

Paternity leave

Up to 20 days paid leave.

Crisis aims to be an equal opportunities employer.

Crisis
66 Commercial Street
London E1 6LT
Tel: 0870 011 3335
Fax: 0870 011 3336
Email: enquiries@crisis.org.uk
Website: www.crisis.org.uk